

▲ COLM DE RIS POTTERY

From the artisan studio of potter Colm de Ris comes this extraordinary hand-thrown and hand-built tableware. Luminous glaze in the deep blues, purples, and umbers of twilight melds with delightfully unexpected shapes, finely crafted, to transform your table into a work of art. Plates swirl to a central spiral, and are adorned with a triskele medallion. Bowls have a distinctive botanically-inspired shape. Mug sports a handle curved to a spiral at the base, and triskele medallion. The unique shape of the Viking bowl will delight your guests and inspire you to culinary heights.

The Celtic Kitchen

From the famed clotted cream of Cornwall (like Champagne from France, it can come from no other place) to Welsh lamb with mint, the Celtic Kitchen spreads delights on tables across the globe. From Brittany comes hard cider; from Ireland, dry stouts. And from Scotland—Robbie Burns and the pleasures of haggis notwithstanding—comes buttery, crumbly shortbread.

▲ A FEAST OF FRESH SHORTBREAD ▶

Strolling in the Scottish Highlands, you might be suddenly captivated by a delicious aroma—freshly baked shortbread! Inspired by such memories, real or imagined, these multi-cookie ceramic pans add the embellishment of a Celtic symbol to each luscious piece of shortbread. All pans come with simple recipes and can also be used to make ornaments of baker's clay or cast paper. Approx. 8" across. Rush delivery is not available.
