9TH CENTURY CATS

*Pangur Bawn, my cat, and I both
Set our minds full on our work
His calling is to hunt mice
Mine is to seek out learning*

Thus an unknown 9th century monk took a break from his manuscripts to pay tribute to his beloved cat in poetry. In the style of a manuscript illumination, knotwork enhances the form of these playful sterling silver felines. With garnet or deep green Dragonite™ stones. Pendant on 18" chain, with matching earrings. Made in USA by James Walton.

LYONESSE

Celtic Legend's evocative album Lyonesse is inspired by the haunting story of a mythical land which, Atlantis-like, is lost beneath the pounding waves of the Atlantic Ocean. Lead vocalist Emily Ovenden of Mediæval Bæbes lends an air of mystery to the tale, awash in music that is serene, mystical and visionary. Light a few candles, close your eyes, and let this classically influenced music take you to another world. 15 tracks; 54 minutes.

CIRCLE OF CATS

Seven feline guardians gather to observe the flickering flame in the center of their circle. Each cat is imbued with its own alluring personality. Look for the Celtic spiral and Tree of Life on the cats' backs, then light a candle and let them do their magic. Made of cast stone; includes candle. For indoor use only. Approximately 4½" tall. Made in USA. Gift wrap and rush delivery not available.
