HANDSTITCHED JOURNALS

The Book of Kells, painstakingly crafted by medieval Irish monks, has been an inspiration both spiritual and artistic for centuries. Let the art of the Book of Kells inspire your musings in these 128-page journals. 7" x 9", lined, smooth cream archival paper. Handstitched coptic binding, a style developed by 4th century Christians in Egypt, allows the journal to open perfectly flat. A unique accordion-style memento pouch is mounted inside the back cover. Choose from Iudæa, Chi Rho, Four Evangelists or Quoniam.
