

HEROIC ENSEMBLE ▶

Stride across the moors and meadows, or the decks of a pirate ship, in dramatic attire of days gone by. Burgundy Irish dress includes lace-up bodice (with internal boning for shaping) and full skirt. Bodice reverses to black. (Dress is also available in hunter green with curry skirt; view at gaelson.com.) The hip-length muslin chemise is trimmed in an eternal knot motif with silver or gold metallic thread. Gathered underskirt in black provides additional flounce. Dress is 43" from waist.

The gentleman's ensemble bespeaks a noble heart: black cotton velveteen breeches with button fly and pockets, topped by 100% cotton highlander shirt (in black or white) with buttons at wrists and collar. The rogue's outfit is ready for action—leap on a horse or climb a ship's rigging in long black trousers, maroon vest, and leather head wrap. Vest laces up front with grommets for a fit like a glove and has a back peplum that flatters your rear. Vest is reversible to black and can be worn alone or with the black or white highlander's shirt. Leather bracers protect the arms and lace up to add the final robust touch. All garments are machine washable cotton; made in USA.

▲ EXCLUSIVE! LEATHER WRISTBANDS

Celtic warriors would bind their wrists with leather, both for practical support and for the feeling of strength, the invocation of the animal power still in the hide. Popular again today, a leather wristband still endows the wearer with a sense of purpose. Buckle adjusts this wristband from 6½" to 8½", to fit most wrists. Specify black or brown leather. 1½" wide. Made in Ireland.
