

NEW! DONEGAL SWEATER COAT

EXCLUSIVE! A rare clear day in western Ireland late in the year. The breeze is brisk—you can smell the damp flinty air of the rushing river. Take the long way round before heading into the village, and appreciate the raw beauty of the countryside. Elongated cardigan sweater coat keeps you warm, and will show off well later in town. Made of 100% merino wool, spun and knitted near the rocky coast of Donegal, Ireland. Dry clean. Sizes S-XL (sizes run small, if between sizes order a size up). In flecked tones of Wineberry, Granite or Navy.

Diamond-shaped Joan of Arc Bow-shaped

THREE GRACES

Attractive and functional, this trio really holds hair in place. Both the diamond- and bow-shaped barrettes feature bold knotwork in classic Celtic style. The graceful Joan of Arc design was inspired by a fleur-de-lis in the French Abbey of St. Denis where the saint dedicated her armor before going to war. All made in Cornwall of pewter.
